REALTOR® of the Year - Patrick Lucas

Necia Freeman - Outstanding Community Service Award

Necia is a Realtor at Old Colony Realtors of Huntington and has served on various committees on the board throughout her career. Over the last several years, she has selflessly dedicated her time to those in need around our community. Because of her hard work and dedication, she got to walk the red carpet for her work on the documentary, Heroin(E) along side the Huntington Fire Chief, Jan Rader. To show her our appreciation for her dedication not only to our board but also our community, we presented her with our 2020 HBOR Outstanding Community Service Award.

Patrick is the owner and broker of Century21 and has previously served as our President, a director on the board of directors, and chaired various committees numerous times. He is currently serving as the treasurer for the West Virginia Association of Realtors. Patrick has proven his loyalty and dedication to our board over the years so we recognized his achievements by presenting him with the 2020 Realtor of the Year Award.

Chris Carter - Affiliate of the Year Award

Chris is the owner and operator of Carter View Inspections. Since becoming an affiliate of our board of realtors he has volunteered and sponsored numerous events. For his dedication and generosity, we presented him with our 2020 HBOR Affiliate of the Year Award.
