

A History of Making Connections

Bloom WHERE YOU ARE PLANTED

Get to know your neighbors! There is a sense of comradery and enjoyment when see people you recognize and say hello by name. Start with the ones who live on either side of you and then maybe the ones across the street. There are neighborhood associations throughout the city of Huntington. Check with the Neighborhood Institute, which is the umbrella organization, to find out if there is one for your area.

<https://www.cityofhuntington.com/residents/neighborhood-organizations>

Another way to bloom where you are planted is to get involved in your community. Non-profit groups cannot exist without their volunteers! Call one that appeals to your passion and ask how you can help.

Like to read? Call the Cabell County Public Library, (304) 528-5700

Love animals? Call the Huntington Cabell Wayne Animal Shelter, (304) 696-5551, <https://www.hcwanimalshelter.com/volunteer-your-time>

Love the arts? Contact the Marshall Artist Series, (304) 696-3326; Huntington Museum of Art, (304) 529-2701 or the Huntington Symphony, (304) 781-8343.

Helping others? The Red Cross, United Way, and Ronald McDonald House are others that are always in need of volunteers!

Bloom where you are planted, you will receive back more than you give in good feelings!

Contact one of our agents to find the home of your dreams in the neighborhood of your choice!

Blaine Crabtree, Agent • 304.638.7236
Seth Crabtree, Agent • 304.634.5361
Parker Ward, Agent • 304.633.3811
Arvin Thompson, Agent • 304.544.4870

Brian Stephens • 304.412.0340
Beckett Ward, Agent • 304.208.5597
Amy Ward, Broker • 304.733.9601

wvrealtyadvantage.com • 320 9th St, Suite A • Huntington WV 25701 •

We are VIRTUALLY ready to help SELL or BUY your home! Call now and ask us how!